Re: Travelers Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Dormitory Auth. – State of N.Y. et al.
Case No. 07-CV-6915(DLC)
KDV File No.: 0166009-0002

Dear Judge Cote:

This office has been co-counsel for Carolina Casualty Insurance Company ("Carolina"), a fourth-party defendant in the above captioned matter, along with the firm of Zichello and McIntyre, LLP from the inception of the fourth-party complaint.

By reason of the change in the status of the case after the Court's decisions on various motions for summary or partial summary judgment, Carolina has decided to proceed with one, rather than two attorneys. I and the firm with which I am affiliated, Kaufman Dolowich Voluck & Gonzo LLP have been relieved by Carolina while Zichello and McIntyre, LLP will continue to represent Carolina in this matter.

We believe that a formal motion seeking leave to withdraw is unnecessary because Carolina is still represented by counsel and we ask that Your Honor endorse an Order relieving us as co-counsel for Carolina. If the Court deems this insufficient, we will make a formal application to be relieved.

*Kaufman Dolowich's application to be relieved as counsel for Carolina is granted.
